

Meghan Broeman

Fourth Grade Teacher

Degree(s): B.S., graduated from Florida State University with a major in Social Sciences, focus in Sociology, minor in Communications; post graduate courses taken at Florida Atlantic University and University of Phoenix

Certifications:

- State of Florida Department of Education Professional Educator's Certificate - Elementary Education, grades K - 6
- Florida Department of Children and Families:
Developmentally Appropriate Practices for Young Children Training
Behavioral Observation and screening in Child Care Training
Introductory Child Care Training Course

Training and Implementation:

- Kagan Structures for Cooperative Learning by Dr. Laurie Kagan
- How the Brain Learns: Translating Brain Research into the Classroom
- FCIS Academy for High Performing Teachers
- 250+ hours of continuing education

Total Years at CCS: 8

- 1 year, PKE3/PK3 Assistant
- 7 years, Fourth Grade Teacher

Expertise, Awards and Service:

- CCS Activities                      Lead Technology Team (presentation of SMARTBoard)
Theater Club Director
Christ Church Wesley Group Leader
- CCS Committees                      Sunshine, Christian Education, Bible Festival, Social and Literary Festival
- Leadership                              Community Service Director, Phi Theta Kappa International
Honor Society Director; America Reads Program, Florida
State University
- Awards                                      Preparing Leaders for Public Service Scholarship
United States Achievement Academy's All American Scholar
United States Students Council Award Winner
Homecoming Queen, Trinity High School
Miss Pennsylvania—Miss Teen All American Pageant
- Ministry                                      Teen Quest Vision Drama Missionary Team, Germany and Poland
Peer Educator for Washington Hospital Teen Outreach