

Tracy Herman PK E3 and PK3 Teacher

Degree(s): B.S., Nursing,
Vanderbilt University

Certifications:

- Family Child Care Training, Nova Southeastern University
- Developmentally Appropriate Practices for Young Children, Nova Southeastern University

Total Years at CCS: 10 years as a teacher & 15 years as a parent - 25 years total
Mrs. Herman also worked as a CAN instructor at Keiser College in classroom, clinical & Hospice settings.

Continuing Education, Training and Implementation:

- Creating a Brain-Based Learning Environment
- Memory and Learning
- Cerebral Mysteries: Impulsive Behavior, Cognition and Learning Disabilities
- Multiple Intelligences
- Activities Integrating Math and Science (AIMS)
- Ages and Stages
- Florida Kindergarten Council Annual Convention
- Curriculum Mapping
- Classroom Management and Conflict Resolution Best Practices
- Demonstrator, EpiPen Training
- CPR Certified

Strengths and Expertise:

- Preprimary Grade Level Chair
- Attended FCIS and FKC conferences
- Licensed RN since 1977
- Previously employed as RN at Gold Coast Home Health, North Ridge Hospital & Holy Cross

Mrs. Herman is married and has three children.